James 5

1. Read James 5 and write down any questions or insights that you have.
2. James returns again to the rich in this chapter. Is James telling us to shun wealth in verses 1 through 6? See also James 1:11, 2:6, De 8:12-15.
3. For what is James telling us to be patient in verses 7 and 8? See also Rom 2:7, 15:4, Gal 6:9, 1Th 2:19, 1Th 3:13.
4. Why is it important for us not to swear and to let our "yes" be "yes" and our "no" be "no"? Verse 12. See also Mt 5:33-37.
5. Why is it when we pray for some people to be healed they are not healed? Is our faith lacking or that we aren't righteous enough? Verses 13-18.
6. What do you learn about our relationship with our brothers and sisters in Christ from verses 9-18?
7. Look back over the book of James and your answers to the Bible studies. What have you taken away from this book that has meant the most to you?
